On these Sundays of Easter, our Easter celebration continues as we reflect on the presence of the risen Christ among us. The Easter season invites us to enter more deeply into the meaning of the Paschal Mystery which we celebrate at every Eucharist. Every time we receive the Eucharist, it directs our attention to Christ's Paschal Mystery:

His life, passion and death .

Do we believe, celebrate, and confirm this in our daily lives and in the life of the church? Sometimes it seems impossible during our difficult times to see Jesus in our own lives. We must allow ourselves to be helped by Jesus knowing that with Him there will always come joy.

As we live our lives as Catholics, we should never question our faith. We must always surrender to God's will and then you will have a deeper understanding of God's love. We must open our eyes and ears to recognize Jesus, alive among all of us.
