Thank you to everyone who attended 125th Anniversary Celebration last week. It was a great time to celebrate God's goodness to our parish over the last 125 years. Allow me to thank Karen Moog and Colleen Meehan who organized the event as well as Jim Pistilli, Calogero Carletto, Lenny D'Ambrosio, Ninfa Chiarello and Maria Byrnes for their inestimable help. Many thanks to our generous benefactors and local businesses who took ads in our digital journal; Bedell Pizzo Funeral Home, Scalia-Moran -Scalia Funeral Home, Lois and Richard Nicotra from the Hilton Garden Inn, Tottenville Medical Pavillion - Dr. Bari Ceka, Vito Fosella the Staten Island Borough President, Senator Andrew Lanza, City Councilman, Joe Borelli, Northfield Bank, The Tottenville Civic Association, Lori Ficarra - Di Tommaso Real Estate , Antonio's Gourmet, Deacon Richard and Dr. Constance Salhany, Angie Mangino, The Bennett Family, The Byrnes Family, The Grandinetti Family and the Pantaleone Family.

Our last event to mark the 125th Anniversary will be the devotion of Forty Hours of Eucharistic Adoration to take place from Sunday Nov. 12th to Tuesday Nov. 14th. I will be counting on many of you to take hours during the day and night to keep vigil with our Eucharistic Lord. I hope that through this act of devotion we may thank the Lord for all His blessings, especially 125 years of parish life, and that He will bless us, our neighborhood and our troubled world.

Also, starting November 4th, OLHC will welcome Mr. Miguel Campinho as our Organist and Director of Music. I am grateful to him and to the Lord that he has accepted the position at our parish. Here is a greeting from Miguel:

"Greetings to the OLHC community! My name is Miguel Campinho, and I will be serving the community as your Music Director. I am originally from Portugal, and I started to play and sing for church services when I was 15 years old. I have a doctoral degree in Piano Performance and I teach Music Theory at Wagner College. My wife, our son, and I are delighted to join the OLHC community!"

I hope all of you will extend to him and his family a hearty Tottenville welcome!

*Fr. James Ferreira,
Pastor

RESPECT LIFE NEWS

Crossroad Foundation thanks OLHC for the donations given on the 4th Sunday of each month. This helps them meet the needs of the women who come to the center.

Last year 300 women came for help. Many participated in the parenting program and over $75,000 in baby items was distributed. More importantly, 60 MOTHERS who were considering abortion chose to enroll in the pre natal program and continue their pregnancies!

One donations REALLY HELP. OLHC is saving babies. Pray for this ministry.
