YOUR CATHOLIC GIVING GUIDE

AFTER THE LORD TEACHES the disciples to pray for the "Our Father" in Matthew 6, He instructs them about the importance of fasting and almsgiving. Together, prayer, fasting, and almsgiving are three ways that we "make a return for all the good He has done for us" (Psalm 116:12)! We are called to give to God from our first fruits in gratitude for the love He shown to us.

Just as we make plans to regularly attend Mass and confession or volunteer our time in parish ministries, our Lord also invites us to create a plan for giving to His Church. In doing so, we can offer up our financial sacrifices as a way of prayerfully expressing gratitude for God's goodness to us.

With this in mind, we invite you to make your gift to our parish an intentional one using this worksheet. Whatever your contribution, we ask that you joyfully commit the sacrifice to prayer: Lord, we offer You these first fruits of our labor. Please bless this sacrifice and use it to Your glory.

Best Practices

- Prayerfully plan your giving annually in accordance with your household budget.
- Thoughtfully commit a certain percentage of your income to parish offertory.
- Use our parish's electronic giving system by following the instructions on our website.
- You can also make an online donation or update your weekly gift by opening your smartphone camera app and scanning this QR code:

If you need assistance, please call the parish office.

Thank you for your generosity!

Benefits of E-Giving

Helps our parish minimize weekly fluctuations in offertory.

Allows us to better plan our parish budget and helps our ministries thrive.

Ensures timely and efficient payments for you through scheduled and recurring transactions.

Saves you from remembering to carry bulky checkbooks or envelopes to church.

Strengthens your involvement with our parish and our community.
