Purgatory is a state of purification that souls undergo after death so they can move into the presence of God. These souls are assured of Heaven and are called “Holy”. They died in the mercy of God, but they still must undergo purification before they are able to enter the Kingdom of God for all eternity.

Why do we pray for the souls of Purgatory? Many of us have heard when a person dies, to pray for their souls in Purgatory. The reason being is that praying for their souls help them to shorten and ease their time of purification and to satisfy our obligation to our loved ones who have died . We can no longer help them physically, so now our efforts must be spiritual. Praying also reminds us of the hope of heaven that awaits them and us after our earthly life.

Thank you to all those who volunteered their time, visited the Blessed Sacrament and attended the Masses during our 40 Hours of Eucharistic Adoration at OLHC . May God grant us with His grace and bestow His blessings on all of us.
